Guide Price £860,000

Full Description

Crescent Road in East Barnet is a residential area characterised by a mix of Victorian and Edwardian homes. Located in the London Borough of Barnet, it offers a peaceful suburban environment with access to local amenities, parks, and good transportation links to central London. The house was built in the 1920's and is ideally located to take advantage of the tube and local schools together with the surrounding open spaces of Hadley Common and Oak Hill Park. Cockfosters underground station is a 5 minute drive (Piccadilly Line) and New Barnet Nation Rail station is a 10 minute walk. There are also regular bus services to Barnet and Southgate.

This handsome semi detached house is situated on Crescent Road. On entering the property, there is a bright entrance hall with under stairs cupboard, living room, large dining room with skylight, study, eat in kitchen with utility and shower room. The kitchen is at the rear and has been extended to provide a light and airy room with doors leading directly to the garden. Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms and one single bedrooms. There is a recently refurbished family bathroom with bath, sink and toilet. The property has gas central heating via a gas boiler with hot water tank (megaflor) and is double glazed throughout. The property benefits from a private driveway at the rear of the property accessed via St Wilfrid's Road. There is also a garage which has been converted into a studio/games room.
